Your task for homework this week is to gather information about your family background. You need to fill in the 'My Family Tree' below with the names of your family members. You also need to include which country each family member was born in. You will need to ask your parents and possibly your grandparents for some help investigating your family tree.